- (4) Notwithstanding that a Committee has ceased to hold office by reason of the appointment of a new Committee, the members of the Committee shall be seized with jurisdiction to complete any matter which the Committee has commenced so long as a quorum of the members of the Committee continue to participate, and for this purpose the members of the Committee continue to have the same powers, privileges, immunities and duties as are provided by the Act and the Regulations for a committee.
- (5) (a) The hearing of a formal complaint in accordance with Section 60, and of a show cause hearing in accordance with Section 63, shall be conducted by a panel of at least five individuals selected from a Committee by the chair of such Committee, who shall also choose a chair from among the members of the panel.
- (b) The chair of the Committee may refer any matter that is before that Committee to a panel and may refer any matter that is before a panel to the Committee or another panel.
- (6) If a quorum of the Committee cannot be met, or a panel cannot be composed pursuant to Section 54(5), Council may appoint temporary Committee members from among the membership of the Society.

- (8) The quorum for meetings of a Committee, or a subcommittee, for all purposes shall be five individuals.
- (9) Without limiting the effect of Section 37 of the Act, a hearing panel of a Committee may determine that conduct constitutes unprofessional conduct, or conduct unbecoming an articulated clerk,

- (a) if it involves conduct in the personal or private capacity of a member or articled clerk that tends to bring discredit upon the legal profession including:

 - (ii) taking improper advantage of the youth, inexperience, lack of education, lack of sophistication, or ill health of any person, and

 - (c) if it involves conduct in the professional capacity of a member or articled clerk that tends to bring discredit upon the legal profession including:

 - (ii) knowingly assisting or inducing another lawyer to violate or attempt to violate the provisions of any code or standard of ethics adopted by the Society or a requirement of the Act or these regulations, or
 - (iii) misappropriating or otherwise dealing dishonestly with a client's or a third party's money or property.
55. (1) The objects of the Committee are the protection of the public and the preservation of the reputation of the legal profession. To this end, the Committee shall seek to inhibit unprofessional conduct on the part of members of the Society, or conduct unbecoming of an articled clerk by investigating, on its own initiative or on the complaints of others, alleged instances of such conduct and reporting to Council on the results of its inquiry.
- (2) The Committee shall not permit their procedures to be used:
- (a) by a client of a member complained of for the purpose of harassing such member into providing a relief which is beyond what the member was retained to furnish and which is ordinarily only available in a judgment concluding a successful civil action against the member;

- (b) by a party adverse in interest to a client of the member complained of for the purpose of harassing a member or a client of a member;
 - (c) as a form of discovery for civil litigation;
 - (d) as an abuse of process; or

- 56.
 - (1) The conduct of any member or articled clerk may be investigated, upon the receipt by the Secretary-Treasurer, from a member of a Committee (acting either on the member's own volition or pursuant to a motion of the Committee), a member of the Society, or a member of the public, of a written complaint alleging unprofessional conduct on the part of a member or, in respect of an articled clerk, conduct unbecoming an articled clerk.
 - (2) The representative of the Society's insurer may disclose to a Committee any information not protected by solicitor-client privilege which appears to the representative to disclose unprofessional conduct.
- 57.
 - (1) Upon receipt of a written complaint pursuant to Section 56, the Secretary-Treasurer shall request a written response from the member or articled clerk complained of, and shall forward such response to the complainant.
 - (2) The Secretary-Treasurer shall obtain such further particulars and make such inquiries as the case requires, which may include receiving verification of the facts alleged by the complainant by statutory declaration.
 - (3) Upon completion of the inquiries referred to in subsection (2), the Secretary-Treasurer may attempt to resolve the complaint if, in the opinion of the Secretary-Treasurer, the complaint may be satisfactorily resolved, consistent with the objects of the discipline process, and failure to resolve the complaint will result in the complaint being further dealt with in accordance with this section.
 - (4) Notwithstanding any dismissal of a complaint pursuant to subsection (5), the Secretary-Treasurer may provide a letter to the member or articled clerk complained of reminding the member or articled clerk of the obligations of the member or articled clerk under the Act, the Regulations and the code of conduct adopted by the Society.
 - (5) If, upon completion of the said inquiries, the Secretary-Treasurer is satisfied that:
 - (a) the complaint has been filed for one of the purposes enumerated in section 55(2), or is otherwise frivolous, vexatious, or without foundation, or
 - (b) the evidence that might reasonably be believed could not support a finding of unprofessional conduct or conduct unbecoming an articled clerk or would not merit a reprimand, counselling or both, the Secretary-Treasurer may dismiss the complaint and shall advise the complainant thereof by registered mail, setting forth the reasons for dismissing the complaint.

- (6) The complainant whose complaint has been dismissed by the Secretary-Treasurer may, within 30 days of being notified of the dismissal of the complaint, apply to a Committee for a review of the decision of the Secretary-Treasurer, but such review shall, unless otherwise directed by the Committee, be limited to a review of the record prepared by the Secretary-Treasurer and the reasons given by the Secretary-Treasurer for dismissal of the complaint.
 - (7) The Committee to whom an application for review has been submitted pursuant to clause (6) shall render its decision within 60 days of the submission of the request to it, or within such further time as Council may allow, and shall provide reasons for its decision.
 - (8) If a Committee determines that a complaint dismissed by the Secretary-Treasurer ought not to have been dismissed, the Committee shall proceed to investigate the complaint in the manner set out in Section 59.
 - (9) If the Secretary-Treasurer does not dismiss a complaint, the Secretary-Treasurer may:
 - (a) refer the complaint, together with all materials pertaining thereto, to the Chair of one of the Committees, or
 - (b) close the file where, due to lack of communication or lack of action, the Secretary-Treasurer is of the belief that the complaint has been resolved or that the complainant wishes that no further action be taken.
- 58.
- (1) Allegations of unprofessional conduct of a member of the Society who is the President, a member of a Committee or the Secretary-Treasurer shall be investigated in accordance with subsection (3).

 - (3) On receipt of a referral under subsection (2), the President or the Vice-President, shall appoint as a special investigator, a practising lawyer, who is not currently a member of a Committee, to address the matter in accordance with this subsection.
 - (4) When addressing the matter, the special investigator has all the powers and authority of the Secretary-Treasurer, with respect to complaints.
 - (5) If the special investigator dismisses the complaint, in addition to those required to receive notice under section 57(5), the person who appointed the special investigator, shall be notified of the dismissal.

- (6) A dismissal of a complaint by the special investigator is subject to a review under subsection 57(6), which will apply mutatis mutandis to this regulation.
 - (7) For purposes of a review under subsection (6), the body conducting such review shall be made up of the three immediate past presidents of the Society who are available to serve.
 - (8) If, as a result of an investigation, the special investigator determines that the matter should be referred to a Committee, the special investigator shall advise the person who appointed the special investigator.
59. (1) The Chair of a Committee shall review the information compiled by the Secretary-Treasurer pursuant to Section 57, and thereafter the investigation shall be proceeded with as determined by the Committee.
- (2) Unless otherwise determined by the Committee:
- (a) the investigation shall be commenced by the Committee forwarding a copy of the complaint to the member or articulated clerk complained of together with all materials pertaining thereto.
 - (b) within ten days of the receipt of such complaint, the member or articulated clerk complained of shall forward an answer in writing, together with such supporting material to the chair of the Committee. In lieu of such written answer, the member or articulated clerk complained of may forward a letter acknowledging the receipt of such complaint and offering to appear before the Committee or designated members thereof for the purpose of furnishing an answer orally. The chair shall furnish to the person making the complaint copies of any written answer and of any other written communication or material furnished to the Committee by the member or articulated clerk complained of.
- (3) Whether or not any answer is received within the time herein provided, or at all, the investigation shall be proceeded with as determined by the Committee chair who received a copy of the complaint.
- (4) On the direction of the Committee chair, the chair or a member of the Committee may act as an Investigating Officer of the complaint.
- (5) The investigation may include:

 - (e) a hearing at which the Committee has and exercises the powers and privileges described in section 38(9) of the Act;
 - (f) such other steps as the chair of the Committee determines are necessary for a thorough investigation.
- (6) In the course of an investigation and after consideration of the prior discipline record of the member or articulated clerk complained of, the Committee may adopt one or more of the following courses of action as is deemed appropriate:
 - (a) determine that the evidence disclosed by the investigation which might reasonably be believed could not support a finding of unprofessional conduct or conduct unbecoming an articulated clerk, and accordingly that the complaint should not be proceeded with and that the complainant or the complainant's solicitor and the member or articulated clerk complained of be so advised by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Society;
 - (b) determine that the evidence discloses conduct meriting only a reprimand and/or some counsel, from the Committee, and accordingly that such reprimand and counsel be communicated to the member or articulated clerk complained of, with an appropriate advice to the complainant, by the chair of the Committee making the determination;
 - (c) determine that the evidence could support a finding of unprofessional conduct or conduct unbecoming an articulated clerk and accordingly that the Secretary-Treasurer of the Society be instructed to lay a formal complaint against the member or articulated clerk complained of in the name of the Society relating to all or any part of the subject matter of the original complaint or any matter disclosed by the investigation;
 - (d) determine that the Secretary-Treasurer of the Society advise a complainant not represented by a solicitor that, while the complaint is not being proceeded with for the reason mentioned in clause (a) of this subsection, the complainant should consult a solicitor regarding a possible civil remedy against the member or articulated clerk complained of;
 - (e) determine to take such other appropriate action as is deemed advisable.
- (7) In any determination under subsection (6), any member of the Committee acting as the Society's investigating officer may abstain from voting and, if the member does so, the minutes of the meeting shall so record, but the member shall nevertheless be counted present for quorum purposes.

- (8) A Committee shall complete its investigation of a complaint and provide its recommendation pursuant to subsection (6) within four months of receipt of the complaint by the chair of the Committee or within such further time as Council may allow.
- (9) Any member or articled clerk who was counselled or reprimanded pursuant to clause (b) of subsection (6), and is not satisfied with that decision, may, within thirty days of the date of that decision, request the Secretary-Treasurer to lay a formal complaint in the matter, and the Committee which did not impose the counselling or reprimand shall conduct a formal hearing into the conduct of the member or articled clerk, which Committee may quash, confirm or vary the decision of the Committee made pursuant to clause (6)(b).
- (10) The Committee which conducts an investigation maintains jurisdiction over the complaint until the commencement of the formal inquiry by the other Committee and nothing in this subsection affects any order made pursuant to Section 38(6) of the Act.
- (11) Where a Committee investigates on its own initiative or at the request of Council, the procedure followed shall be as set out in this section 59, and all provisions thereof shall apply with such modifications as are necessary. In such cases, a written statement of the chair of the Committee setting out the subject matter of the investigation shall be deemed to be the complaint for the purposes of this section.
- (12) For the purpose of conducting an investigation of a member under this Part III, the Secretary-Treasurer, the Committee or any person designated by either of them may request, and is entitled to obtain, any file or record regarding a client or former client of the member that is reasonably required to further the investigation, whether or not the file or record or any part of it is
 - (a) subject to solicitor-client privilege; or
 - (b) the subject of a charge or complaint.
- (13) A person who, in exercising a power or performing a duty under the Act or Regulations, obtains information that is subject to solicitor-client privilege has the same obligation respecting the information as the member. But the person obtaining the information may disclose it for the purpose of an investigation, hearing or appeal under this Part III.
- (14) In any legal proceeding other than one commenced under the Act or Regulations, a person in possession of solicitor-client privileged records that were obtained or provided to the person in the course of an investigation or proceeding under the Act or Regulations cannot be compelled to produce those records or to answer any question about them.

Conduct of Formal Inquiries

60. (1) In this section ‘panel’ means a panel constituted pursuant to subsection 54(5).
- (2) When so directed by the chair of a Committee, the Secretary-Treasurer shall retain counsel to prosecute a complaint and, with the advice of counsel, lay a formal complaint against the member or articulated clerk complained of and send the copies thereof to such member or articulated clerk, to the person or persons who complained originally to the Society, and to each member of the panel which is to conduct the inquiry.
- (3) Where one Committee has conducted an investigation, the other Committee shall hear and adjudicate the formal complaint.
- (4) Within 14 days after the formal complaint has been laid, the chair of the panel shall hold a pre-hearing conference with counsel for the Society and the member or articulated clerk, or counsel on their behalf, for purposes of setting the dates for the hearing.
- (5) If counsel for the Society and the member or articulated clerk do not agree on dates for the hearing, the chair may fix the time and place for the hearing.
- (6) After the time and place for the hearing have been set, the Secretary-Treasurer shall cause written notice of the hearing to be given to the member or articulated clerk, to the person or persons who originally complained to the Society and to such others, if any, as the chair of the investigating Committee may direct, at least 14 days prior to its commencement of the hearing.
- (7) The inquiry shall be open to the public, unless the panel rules, upon application, that, for good cause, all or a portion of the inquiry shall be conducted in camera.
- (8) Evidence before the panel may be given by oral examination or by declaration under the Canada Evidence Act or the Evidence Act or partly by both, provided that a true copy of any declaration to be so used, other than a declaration of service of any document, shall be mailed by ordinary mail not less than ten days prior to the hearing to the person complained of, or if it is tendered by the person complained of, then to the counsel for the Society.
- (9) The panel may from time to time adjourn an inquiry and give notice thereof to the member or articulated clerk complained of, the complainant and to the Society. If such member or articulated clerk fails to appear at the time and place appointed for an inquiry or for the resumption of an adjourned inquiry after notice thereof, the panel may proceed with the inquiry in the member’s or articulated clerk’s absence.
- (10) The panel may, at any time before or during an inquiry, amend or alter any complaint either to correct an alleged defect in substance or form, or to make the complaint conform to the evidence where there appears to be a variance between the evidence and the complaint, or where the evidence discloses unprofessional conduct or conduct unbecoming an articulated clerk that is not alleged in the complaint.

 - (1) After a formal complaint is prepared pursuant to subsection 60(2), the member or articulated clerk may, at any time prior to the commencement of the hearing, tender to the investigating Committee a proposed settlement agreement, consented to by counsel for the Society, that includes a statement of sufficient facts in relation to the complaint against the member or articulated clerk to support the admitted charges and proposed disposition, an admission of guilt by the member or articulated clerk to one or more of the charges and the consent of the member or articulated clerk to a specified disposition, conditional upon the acceptance of the agreement by the investigating Committee.
 - (2) The investigating Committee may, in its discretion, accept or refuse to accept the proposed settlement agreement.
 - (3) If the investigating Committee refuses to accept the proposed settlement agreement, the hearing shall proceed without reference to the proposed settlement agreement.
 - (4) If the investigating Committee accepts the proposed settlement agreement, it shall, by resolution signed by the chair on behalf of the investigating Committee, confirm acceptance of the settlement agreement.
 - (5) Following receipt of the resolution made by the investigating Committee pursuant to subsection (4), the Secretary-Treasurer may release the settlement agreement in accordance with section 62(3).
 - (1) Upon completion of an inquiry, the panel shall dispose of the complaint as provided in Section 38 of the Act.
 - (2) Within sixty days of the completion of the inquiry, the panel shall provide to the Secretary-Treasurer a copy of its written resolution and decision on the matter.
 - (3) The disposition of the complaint shall be communicated to the complainant, and a copy of the disposition shall be circulated to each sole practitioner and firm of members of the Society.
63.
 - (1) If a Committee:
 - (a) learns that a member or articulated clerk has been subjected to a penalty under any legislation governing the legal profession in another jurisdiction in Canada;
 - (b) has furnished the member or articulated clerk with such notice as it may prescribe of a show cause hearing together with a copy of the relevant decision and order rendered in the other jurisdiction, requiring the member or articulated clerk to show cause why the member or articulated clerk should not be subjected to any disciplinary action in the province; and

- (c) has heard such evidence offered by the member or articulated clerk at the show cause hearing as to why the member or articulated clerk should not be disciplined by the Society, the Committee may take any of the actions contemplated by Section 38 of the Act.

- (2) If a member or an articulated clerk has been found guilty of a criminal offence, a Committee may, by such notice as it prescribes, require the member or articulated clerk to attend a show cause hearing to establish why the member or articulated clerk should not be subjected to any disciplinary action. A person so found guilty shall report the finding of guilt forthwith to the Secretary-Treasurer.
- (3) The show cause hearings pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) shall be open to the public, unless the Committee rules, upon application, that, for good cause, all or a portion of the hearing shall be conducted in camera.

- (5)

 - (b) For the purposes of subsection (2), a certified copy of the finding of guilt of the member or articulated clerk is conclusive evidence that the person has committed the crime or offence stated therein, unless it is shown that the finding has been quashed or set aside.
- (6) The Committee may set its own procedure when conducting a show cause hearing pursuant to subsections (1) and (2).
- (7) A member or an articulated clerk shall notify the Secretary-Treasurer forthwith if the member or clerk had a judgment for a liquidated sum entered against the member or clerk in the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, and accompany such notice with a letter setting out the circumstances of the judgment.

- (b) Where a Committee or Council resolves that a member be suspended or that the member's name be struck from the rolls, Council may by resolution appoint a receiver in the same manner and with the same effect as set out in this section, and the provisions thereof apply with such modifications as are necessary.
- (2) The Prothonotary, upon receipt of a copy of the resolution under subsection (1) certified by the Secretary-Treasurer shall sign it with the seal of the Court, and it shall thereupon become an Order of the Supreme Court.
- (3) No one who has received notice of the resolution may thereafter, while it is in force, discharge a money obligation to the member except by paying it to the receiver or to the order of the receiver.
- (4) Upon the application of the Society or any interested person after ten days' notice to the Society, the Supreme Court or a judge thereof, may vary or vacate the order or may confirm it; and the Court or judge may give such direction as it deems just to the receiver for the due disposal of the documents, monies and assets received by the receiver.
- (5) Upon being appointed receiver under this Section, a receiver shall be empowered to deal with client files in the possession of the member at the time of the appointment of the receiver, and to release such files to clients upon payment of the fee for services rendered and disbursements incurred on behalf of the client to the date of appointment. The receiver may engage counsel to advise the receiver on appropriate fees to be charged to clients. Monies received by the receiver from clients shall be applied in the following priorities:

- (6) Should the revenues of the member not be sufficient to pay the receiver's fees and disbursements, such fees and disbursements shall be paid by the Society, which shall be entitled to reimbursement of same from the member.
- (7) In addition to the foregoing, where a Committee, after due inquiry, finds that a member is absconding, mentally incompetent, insolvent or guilty of dishonesty in connection with his or her practice, or is persistently neglecting client's business, it shall dispose of the matter as provided in Section 38 of the Act.
65. (1) A Committee may at any time direct an investigation to be made by a chartered accountant or other person designated by the Committee (referred to in this regulation as the "investigator") of the books, records and accounts of the member for the purposes of ascertaining and reporting whether the requirements respecting accounts have been and are being complied with.
- (2) A Committee may at any time direct investigation to be made by an investigator of some of all of the records and files of a member of the purpose of ascertaining and reporting whether the member is practising law in a competent manner that is consistent with the public interest.

- (6) The investigator shall report the results of the investigation to a Committee and
- (a) if the investigator finds that the requirements have been complied with, shall file a certificate to that effect with the Secretary-Treasurer; or
 - (b) if the investigator finds that the requirements have not been complied with, shall specify the nature of the breaches, and where any trust account has been overdrawn, as a whole or with respect to any client, shall state at what time, for how long each time, and by what amount each time it has been overdrawn ; and
 - (c) if a member or the member's employees or associates have, in any way, failed to comply with the investigator's request for information or records
